

LIVE CAREFUL

Words & Music: Robert Shumy
Dauer: 3:40

You'll never miss the sunshine, till the rain begins to fall.
You'll never miss your health, till you're sinking down and crawl.
You'll never miss the blue sky, till the night comes over you.
You'll never miss your baby, till you're all alone and blue.

So live careful, with all the things you've got,
'cause of good things, you never have a lot.
So live faithful, then you'll never get the blues,
respect the whole world, then you got nothing to lose.

You'll never miss the wealth, till your boss says: "you are fired".
You'll never miss the sleep, till you're sick and tired.
You'll never miss your friend, till you need a helping hand.
You'll never miss the Lord, till your life comes to the end.

So live careful, with all the things you've got,
'cause of good things, you don't never have a lot.
So live faithful, then you'll never get the blues,
respect the whole world, then you got nothing to lose.
